Are you living or moving away from Chester?

Do you know anyone who is exiled from Chester?

...then think about joining the Chester City Exiles or passing this on to any friend, colleague or family member who might be exiled from Chester.

CHESTER CITY EXILES

Formed 1983

www.chestercityexiles.co.uk

Who should join the Exiles?

Chester supporters who live away from the city whether north or south, UK or abroad, – Chester City Exiles is for you. We cater for City fans from all over the country and keep them in touch with each other and give them the latest news from the Deva Stadium.

Why join the Exiles?

Keep in touch with activities on and off the field at the Club. We will send you regular e-mails with all the latest Exiles news, those without e-mail receive a printed version. We organise pre-match meeting places (pubs!) for many away games and have organised travel on occasion to home games. We also hold several social events each year. We even have a darts team that plays friendly, league and cup matches. The Exiles gives you a voice. We are regularly in contact with the Club and these days they even listen to what we have to say! Pauline Meakins, our Chairman, is on the Board of the Chester City Supporters Trust so we even have a formal mechanism to put the views of Exiles to the Trust and through the Trust to the Club.

Membership details will be held on computer and are not made available to any third party.

The Exiles give you the chance to do your bit to help Chester City. In the Club's darkest hour the Exiles played a leading role in forming the ISA, and now in happier times we are pleased to sponsor the Club directly and still play our part with the other supporters organisations. Over the years we have been proud to make contributions that have included sponsoring matches, players and particularly youth initiatives. This season we are proud sponsors of Simon Marples. Next year we mark our silver jubilee and we are planning a major sponsorship initiative to help the club as part of our celebrations.

We also campaign and work constructively for greater involvement and facilities for supporters in general. The Club is a member of APFSCIL – The Association of Provincial Football Supporters' Clubs in London.

As a member of the Exiles you will get an exclusive Chester City Exiles enamel badge. Classy!

Finally, even if you cannot attend matches, meetings or socials then it will help us just by having your membership fee and from time to time asking you what you think of issues and initiatives that we might be considering. Share the joy that is supporting Chester City with fellow sufferers. You are not alone!

Membership details, including a new Standing Order option, are shown on the form, but we are always very happy to accept donations in addition to the membership fee which just about covers the costs of servicing the membership.
